Q How do I apply for Passport to the World?

If you are a citizen of a country with a low-income, lower-middle income or upper-middle income economy (as defined by the World Bank), you may be eligible for a special Passport to the World fee. Conditions apply.

See the list of eligible countries here. This discount cannot be combined with any other discount and must be applied at the time of registration. The discount cannot be applied retroactively to an existing registration. Please contact ccs2023@wfh.org for more details

Q Do you have any insurance recommendations?

It is recommended that participants obtain adequate cover for travel, health, and accident insurance before they leave their countries. The WFH cannot be held responsible for personal injuries, or loss of, or damage to private property belonging to the participants and accompanying persons.

Q How do I change the name on my registration?

Registrations are non-transferable. No name or registration category changes are permitted. If you wish to change the name on a registration, you will need to cancel your registration and process a new one with the updated name.

Q How do I cancel my registration?

Any cancellation of registration must be sent in writing to ccs2023@wfh.org and will be subject to the following conditions:

- No name changes are permitted.
- Until Friday, March 10, 2023, a refund equivalent to 75% of the paid registration fee will be granted. After Friday, March 10, 2023, no refunds will be granted.
- Requests for refunds with regards to incorrect registration payments or incorrect category selection will not be considered
- Non-attendance will be considered a cancellation on the day of the event and will incur a 100% cancellation fee
- Refunds, if applicable, will be issued no later than one month after the summit.
